PATRICIA B. KNAPP AWARD

LaTeesa James, MLIS '17

LaTeesa James served as the School of Information Sciences' Diversity Graduate Student Assistant from 2015-2017. After graduating in December of 2017, James continued her career as an "Ask a Librarian Specialist" at the University of Michigan's Hatcher Graduate Library, where she served the university's students, faculty and community.

In January 2019, she started a new position at the University of Michigan's Taubman Health Sciences Library as a Health Sciences Informationist, with a subject specialty in obstetrics and gynecology. She focuses on teaching, curriculum integration, and systematic searching.

The Patricia B. Knapp Award was established by the then Division of Library Science at Wayne State University in 1973 in memory of Professor Knapp. The Award is granted each year to a graduating MLIS student who, in the estimation of the Faculty of Library and Information Science, represents those professional qualities which Professor Knapp exemplified so admirably.

DISTINGUISHED ALUMNA AWARD

Adriene Lim, MLIS '96
Dean, University Libraries and Philip H. Knight Chair at University of Oregon

Adriene Lim is currently Dean of Libraries and Philip H. Knight Chair at the University of Oregon, where she provides administrative leadership and vision for a large library system consisting of seven libraries with 190 staff and library faculty.

Before joining UO, Lim was Dean of Libraries at Oakland University in Michigan, and served in a variety of leadership roles at Portland State University, including Interim University Librarian, Associate University Librarian, and leader of Library Technologies. A native of Detroit, Lim also was the Head of Digital Library Services at Wayne State University and the Systems Librarian/ Head of Database Management for the Detroit Area Library Network (DALNET).

Lim earned her Ph.D. in library and information science (LIS), specializing in managerial leadership, at Simmons College in Boston. She holds a master's degree in LIS and a bachelor's degree in Fine Arts, both summa cum laude, from Wayne State University. She has published articles and given presentations about managerial leadership, technology, diversity, and other topics at the international, national, and state levels, and has been active in the American Library Association (ALA), the Library and Information Technology Association (LITA), and the Association of College and Research Libraries (ACRL).

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE AWARD

Cliff Haka
Retired Director of Libraries at Michigan State University

Cliff Haka joined the staff of the Michigan State University (MSU) Libraries in 1982 and was appointed director of libraries in 1997. Cliff recently retired after 21 years of service.

Haka received his undergraduate degree from Western Illinois University, masters degrees in history and library science from the University of Illinois, and MBA from the University of Kansas. Prior to serving as Director of Libraries at MSU, he held positions at the Illinois State Historical Library and the University of Kansas. Cliff has served on the boards of the Center for Research Libraries, the Michigan State Library, the Midwest Center for Library Services, and the Michigan Library Association.
