

Ready for a library leadership role?

Create a new future with Wayne State's Workforce Development Scholarship

The School of Library and Information Science has partnered with five Michigan library cooperatives to offer several $6,000 scholarships to paraprofessional employees of libraries within the cooperatives who are interested in pursuing their MLIS degrees starting January 2016.

These scholarships will give each recipient $1000 tuition remission per semester, over six semesters, while pursuing the 36-credit MLIS. Students are required to register for a minimum of two classes per semester to receive this partial tuition award - additional financial aid may be needed.

5 Library Cooperatives

Lakeland Library Cooperative
Mid-eastern Michigan Library Cooperative
Mid-Michigan Library League
Superiorland Library Cooperative
Woodlands Library Cooperative

Requirements to receive the scholarship include:

- employed by one of the participant library cooperative agencies - verification required
- undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or higher
- two years of relevant work experience
- admission to the WSU-SLIS MLIS program - must be a new student
- two letters of recommendation

Applications due November 2, 2015
