Kathleen Roe
Director of Archives and Records Management
New York State Archives

In addition to overseeing programs operating the New York State Archives archival facility, Kathlenn Roe, MLIS '79, is the current president of the Society of American Archivists. In that capacity, she has challenged archivists to spend a "Year of Living Dangerously for Archives" to focus on raising awareness of and advocating for archives. She has also served as president of the Council of State Archivists and on various committees for SAA and regional archival associations.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE AWARD

Katherine Lester
School Librarian/Technology Integrationist
Plymouth-Canton Schools

Katherine Lester, MLIS '01, has worked throughout Michigan as a School Library Media Specialist. In 2012, her library in Howell won the State Librarian's Excellence Award. She has been active in the Michigan Association for Media in Education (MAME) having served as newsletter editor, Fall Conference Chair, and President and is a member of the Library of Michigan's School Library Workgroup. In 2014, Lester was instrumental in obtaining support from the Michigan State Board of Education to require school libraries to be staffed by certified school media specialists.
